BIBLIOGRAPHY – GREAT WAR SUSSEX

Bedborough, B., Arms and the Clergy, (Pioneer Press, 1934) – this is only an extract from a speech by the Bishop of Chichester. However, it gives me pause to consider the role of the Cathedral in WWI.

Grieves, K., ‘There are times when we would all prefer the factory life: letters from the trenches to the Shippam works in Chichester during the First World War’, Family & Community History, 6(1) (2003): 59-70.

Porter, S. The Home Front: Allotments in the City of Chichester during the First World War (West Sussex County Council, 2014).
